

1 John - Week Two - Notes Page

1 - Re-read 1 John 2:3-29 and write down your first impressions: what stuck out to you, what made you think, and what impacted you the most?_____

2 - We all experience failures in our lives, and in our faith, there are no exemptions to this rule. Think back to a time in you life you would describe as a failure and write out what you need to remember from that time, what lessons came out of that experience that you need to hang on to?_____

B - Knowledge: This is not understanding, or wisdom. “Knowledge” is simply information._____

How would you rate your knowledge of the Bible: fair, good, fairly good... etc. Most people would probably say okay but could be better. This is a fair and common answer but it is lacking a very important part and that deciding what are you going to do about it. Here is a challenge: list two things you can do, starting today, or tomorrow, but no later than monday...:0) that will help you increase your knowledge in this area, then commit to doing at least one of them._____

C - Assent: To agree that what you know about God is true._____

List a few things that you know are in the Bible that you have not given assent._____

Now take some time to research that topic more thoroughly, has your position changed, why or why not?

D - Application: ⁴The one who says, “I have come to know Him,” and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him..._____
