

Transformation Pt 5, “Not one - Only One” Romans 3:1-26 - Notes Page

Premise: The more we understand our inability to live up to the righteousness of God, the more we should learn to lean into, and trust, the Salvation we have received through Christ. It is only through His redemptive power that we find any true, lasting, meaning in this life.

1 - What is the benefit of being a Christian in a lost world

A - Think of all we have covered over the past few weeks

Week 1 - The need for a believer to be willing to give much of their life in the service to the Gospel Message

Week 2 - The need for us to learn and understand, to the best of our abilities, the full message of the Gospel.

Week 3 - That we make the conscious choice to resist the temptations of the world, and the desires of temporary things, and live in a manner that “Brings Honor to God, As God”...

Week 4 - That we understand the truth that our journey in faith will come with struggles. That we will be both offend, and be offended, throughout our journey.

---

---

B - “Life was easier before I met Jesus”:

---

---

C -When Paul asked the question - He also answered it:

---

---

2 - Not one

A - How many of us here today... other than me... can say that, before becoming a Christian, we knew something was missing from our lives...?

If sex is just sex:

---

---

If I think being a “good person” will do something beneficial for me after I die:

---

---

If I came from nothing, and will return to nothing:

---

---

B - We all know, in our hearts that:Jeremiah 31:33-34

Romans 3:10-18:

C - The Key to a deep relationship with Christ is found in understanding, and embracing the fact that not one of us deserves what He has offered...

Psalm 143:2 / Galatians 2:15-16 / Galatians 3:11:

Romans 3:21-26