

Transformation Pt 18, “Hope For Tomorrow”

1 - Israels Hope: Romans 11:1-2

A - Does God Reject His people?

An honest first question to deal with here is the assumption that if we are not good enough God may abandon us?_____

---

---

---

---

---

If we can learn anything form the Israelites it is that following a set of rules, no matter how well put together they are, does not make you a righteous, sinless, person. God is looking for is a changed heart...If there heart changes, the behavior will eventually follow._____

---

---

---

---

---

B - Paul in the next sentence answered the question with...

Certainly Not... For I too am an Israelite... _____

---

---

---

---

C - Gods People that He “Foreknew”

He has not rejected His people that He foreknew..._____

---

---

---

Basically, in these first couple of verses what we should remember is that if you are feeling distance between you and God... God didn't move... you did..._____

---

---

---

---

---

